Cannon Report

Nineteen Forty-nine Senior Edition

Volume XV

J. W. CANNON HIGH SCHOOL

Kannapolis, North Carolina

We DEDICATE

To Herbert Kirk, who has faithfully and loyally served our school as janitor for many years, who is liked by teachers and students for his friendliness, and whose co-operative spirit is an outstanding characteristic, we, the Seniors of J. W. Cannon High School, do hereby dedicate this Senior Edition of the Cannon Report.

MEMORIES OF THE CLASS OF 1949

BOBBYE STEELE, Historian

"A scrapbook! Why this is a scrapbook of my high school days." It was a cold, December night in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-nine. I had been rummaging through an old desk when I discovered this book which was dear to me. Old memories began running through my mind about my four years at J. W. Cannon High School. I pulled a soft chair beside the cozy fireplace and began to relive my high school days.

The cover was bound in green and white, our school colors, and the first page was entitled "Freshman Class." Turning these first pages, I remembered when my class was the freshman class. We felt young and amazed at our new home, but it was not long until we felt we, too, had a part in this wonderful institution of learning.

Then I discovered a snapshot of our class officers. I had forgotten that Pat Glass was president and Carl Hendren, vice-president. There was Lincoln Jung, our secretary and treasurer, with Bobbye Steele and Bill Morgan our Student Council representatives. That must be Hoyle Wilcox. He was elected as council representative when Bill Morgan resigned. There's Miss Elizabeth Huddle, our freshman class adviser. Next I found a piece of blue crepe paper, a souvenir from our freshman class party. Then I discovered a menu from our school cafeteria, which was completed during our freshman year. I found another snapshot; it was Mr. John L. Dupree, our principal, who helped to make our freshman class a success.

Memories of my freshman year were going through my mind when I discovered a copy of our school paper, The Cannon Report. It was dated September, 1946, and on the first page was an article about the election of the sophomore class officers. "Why, that was the year I was a sophomore, and those are my very own class officers," I thought. As I began reading the list, it seemed I was a sophomore again, helping to elect Hollin Baker, president; Bill Ritchie, vice-president; Betty Shoaf, secretary; and Jackie Williams, treasurer. Betty Shoaf and Jackie Williams were also our representatives in Student Council. This election was under the supervision of Misses Elizabeth Huddle and Merle Etta Lancaster, our class advisers. There was also an article about Mr. J. R. Melton, who was our principal for two years. As I looked farther through The Cannon Report I remembered how proud I was of my class. We had an officer in Student Government for the first time, Bobbye Steele, who was treasurer, and we began to take a more active part in extra-curricular activities.

What's this! It is a picture I had taken of our class in bathing suits at our unforgettable class party at "Mirror Lakes." How my brain was whirling while I was remembering the fun and excitement of my second year at K. H. S.

When I discovered a snapshot of a girl in an outlandish get-up, I remembered the initiations some clubs were always bestowing upon some poor defenseless creatures. Yes! How I remember the football games we played with Concord, the band, Glee Club, orchestra, Tri-Hi-Y, and Student Government.

Turning more pages, I began to re-live my junior year. I discovered an article written about the Senior-Junior, which the seniors gave in our honor. The theme of the glorious event was "Winter Wonderland," and it was really a "Wonderland" of fun and beauty. There was a program from our successful junior class play, "Jumping Jewels," directed by Miss Garnet Bowles.

A piece of rope? Then I remembered that was what I used on "Sadie Hawkins" day to try to catch a man. A pressed bouquet—that was a souvenir of our memorable Junior-Senior. The theme was "Plantation Ball" and the gymnasium was turned into a beautiful Southern garden for this delightful occasion. The girls wore hooped skirts and the boys were "Southern Gentlemen" as we re-lived the old South. This was truly one of the happiest events in our junior year. Then I found a picture of all our junior class officers. The picture contained Bill Farabee, our president; Buddy Lipe, vice-president; Phyllis McCarn, secretary; and Joe Little, treasurer. The council representatives were Betty Brigman and Buddy Lipe. Miss Nadine Gragg was our class adviser this year. We were happy to have Betty Shoaf represent our class in Student Government as secretary.

Turning further through my memory book, I came upon my senior year. I found a Blue and Silver program from the Senior-Junior, which our class gave for the juniors. The theme was "Christmas Festival" and the gymnasium was filled with gaily decorated Christmas trees that were magnificent in their beauty. This event will remain in our hearts forever. On the second page of the program, I found a list of our senior class officers. They were Billy Max Hargett, president; Jimmy Whitley, vice-president; Phyllis McCarn, secretary; and Hollin Baker, treasurer. Helen Tipton and Eugene Womble were our council representatives. We were proudly represented in Student Government this year with Bill Ritchie, president, and Betty Shoaf, vice-president. This was truly our year.

Then, I discovered many souvenirs in my memory book: First, an article about our new principal, Mr. Fred O. Drummond, whom we were happy to have with us this year; then, two pieces of ribbon, symbolizing our class colors, our class song and poem, our mascots (who were Co-Nette Phillips and Tommy Aderhold), our class flower; an old Cannon Report with an article about senior class day (What fun we had that day! We ruled Senior Court where we sternly convicted the lower classmen); and a pressed rose from the Junior-Senior which the juniors gave for our senior class.

Through the last pages of my green and white memory book, I found many souvenirs of my last days at Cannon High School. There were programs from Class Night and Commencement, and on the very last page, I discovered my high school diploma. Tears were in my eyes as I slowly closed my memory book, for in this short time, I had re-lived four of my happiest years in life.

CLASS PROPHECY

The casual sight of an old commencement program, which I picked up the other day—I know not by what chance it was preserved so long—tempts me to call to mind the Seniors who made the principal figure in it.

Margaret Bragg, "Miss Cannon High," is now a model for Grover Edmiston, who owns "Glamour Inc.," located in New York near the John Powers Modeling Agency, owned by Richard Wagoner and Boyce Yates. They have as their most popular models Margaret Gaither, Doris Overcash, Bette Watkins and Patsy Glass.

Working in the newspaper business are Ned Robinette and Eugene Womble as co-editors of the New York Times. On their staff are Nina Ruth Glass and Lois Freeman. Lincoln Jung is the business manager.

Gerald Blackburn has won the American Hall of Fame as the best baseball pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics. Also on the team we find Eddie Bost, always holding the third base position perfectly.

The nationally known professional football players, with Dennis Dave as captain, have made the long sought seasonal win. Len Price, Billy Foil and Harold Rodgers were a few of the most outstanding players.

Bill Howard, Paul Fritts, Bill Harrell, Akins Chastain and Mack Russell, better known as the "Dead End Kids," have just finished the greatest comedy of all time, "Run for Your Lives." By the way, Harold Griffin was the producer. The picture was made at R.K.O. Studios, of which Harold is owner.

Doris Harrington and Barbara Simmons are co-owners of the beautiful Fashion Shoppe for women in Florida. Their motto is "We always fit the right lady to the right size."

Jimmy Whitley, who followed in the footsteps of his father, now owns a chain of theaters stretching throughout the country. "Nat" Gilliam, the most famous comedian ever to be born, appears at Jimmy's theater quite frequently.

The most interesting discovery has been made by Sylvia Thompson. (It's for the benefit of the women.) She has discovered a new hose, 51 gauge, 15 denier, that won't run.

The growth epidemic has started in our dear ole home town but only Freda Ingram, Bobbye Steele and Phyllis Yoder were affected. They measure 5 ft. 4 in., 5 ft. 5 in., and 5 ft. 6 in. respectively, each tipping the scales at 116 lbs.

Jackie Cornelius is trainer for girls wishing to beautify their figures, at the Y.M.C.A. in Kannapolis. Girls who have taken advantage of this wonderful opportunity are Nancy White and Margaret Philyaw. (Soon they will be two of the most outstanding models in New York.)

Because of old age, Walter Pidgeon and Greer Garson have signed their contracts over to Lloyd Avant and Hazel Rowland, who made a hit in the hilarious mystery comedy, "Drums of Death." Dot Hampton is their producer and director.

The Armed Forces have taken quite a number of our men: Hollin Baker and Buddie Lipe are serving in the Army Air Corps, Hugh Slawson in the United States Marines.

Delores Reid is the librarian at the Kentucky Institute for the Blind and Doris Rimer has taken Mrs. Shinn's position at the Y.M.C.A.

Arlin Ross, the famous magician, has Betty Shepherd sleepwalking every night at twelve o'clock. She always wakes up at the end of a pond. (Er, lagoon.)

Marjorie Meacham has just been elected to serve as adviser for the National Future Homemakers of America for the next two years. A big convention is planned for June 20, at which time she will take over her office.

Bernice Sloop and Betty Nelson are nurses at the Rowan Memorial Hospital. Among the welfare nurses in Baltimore, Maryland, we find Mary Christy.

Mary Anne Riggs, Johnsie Mullis, Dollie Kesler, Betty Moon and Johnnie Helms are the happy little housewives of our fair city.

Doris Howard Gabriel and her husband are living in Kentucky, where they have already started a family. Iris Gatton and her husband now live in Michigan, up near the Great Lakes, where Iris can take a dip in the water whenever she desires.

Among the professional swimmers of our day, we find Marlene Baker, who won an award from the Richmond Swimming Agency.

Betty Shoaf is a Baptist Foreign Missionary stationed in Africa, where she teaches school. Kenneth Byrd is also a well-known missionary.

Because of the demand, Audrey Vanderburg has just completed a new version of "Begin the Beguine." She made millions of dollars on the song. Might I mention, the public went wild?

Kannapolis has a new women's police force with Doris Shaver as chief. Her assistant is Dorothy Clontz.

Betty Jean Snipes is one of the outstanding secretaries for Donald Phillips, present owner of the Cannon Mills.

Fay Gray and Peggy Cooke have broken the speed record for typists, having reached the 200-word-a-minute scale.

Bobby Linn is a state highway patrolman, who keeps the highways warm, chasing those persons (and even animals) going over the speed limit, and checking up on accidents happening on the highways and elsewhere.

Clarice Barnhardt and Doris Carter are telephone operators. Their most used phrases are: "Number Please"; "Sorry, Wrong Number"; and "Busy."

Jamie Austin has been teaching voice at the Shenandoah Conservatory of Music to her star pupil, Ray Clayton.

Barbara Aderhold operates an antique shop, where Amos Abernathy, still a bachelor, goes to buy all his girl friends their special gifts.

Lorna Duvall is opening the new florist shop in Salisbury tomorrow, where ten-dollar orchids will be given away. (Provided you pay the ten dollars!)

Bobby Champion is sheriff of "Rustler's Patch," a small city in the West, where the most "goings on" happen.

Norman Coggins plays the piano at the Metropolitan Opera. Betty Brigman, his wife, appears every night at the concert hall to hear her husband. Helen Brinkley is teaching piano at Appalachian State Teachers' College.

Billy Max Hargett, playing the trombone on the side, has a famous name band with Raymond Icard, cornet soloist, and Kathleen Brown, vocalist.

Dorothy Benfield has majored in business education and is teaching typing and shorthand at King's Business College.

The Best Loved Poems on Love has just been completed by Jerry Horne and accepted by a publishing company in New York. It is expected that these poems will arouse much enthusiasm on the subject.

The biggest Presidential election in years is just over and James Hughes has won. Harold Bost is expected to become the Vice President. President Hughes has chosen as his cabinet members: Secretary of State, Guy Hendren; Secretary of the Treasury, Roy Deal; Secretary of War, Allan Collins; Attorney General, Lloyd Raye; Postmaster General, Clyde Moose; Secretary of the Navy, Bobby Shinn; Secretary of the Interior, Bessie Clark; Secretary of Agriculture, L. G. Rowell; Secretary of Commerce, Margaret Moose; Secretary of Labor, Doris Hardin. Note that the President has chosen a few women to serve.

Imogene Brown is the manager of a nursery and a playground center for the underprivileged children in Greenwich Village.

Bobby Wishon is teaching mathematics at Cannon High School.

Phyllis McCarn and Patsy Mitchem are lawyers—believe it or not.

Robert Burton, Kenneth Howard and Harris Graham have found a modern way of farming. One of their most wonderful discoveries is raising potatoes already peeled.

Horace Bonds is the new president for Bonds Civil Engineering Service Company in Landis, North Carolina. He has as a few of his employees Joe Elliot, Harold Dull and E. H. Matthews.

Bill Morgan, Charles Payne, Bill Farabee and Oscar Triplette, former K.H.S. heartbreakers, are still much-sought-after bachelors.

CLASS PROPHECY

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

BUDDY LIPE, Lawyer

We, the members of the J. W. Cannon High School Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-nine, do hereby make request that the following wishes be declared as our Last Will and Testament:

ARTICLE I

To our beloved principal and teachers we wish to express our deepest appreciation for their kindness and understanding, and our sympathy, for they will need it after we have gone.

ARTICLE II

To those glorious Juniors, who will be dignified Seniors next year, we leave our many privileges and our front seats in the auditorium.

ARTICLE III

To the rising Juniors, Sophomores, and incoming Freshmen we leave the good times we had.

ARTICLE IV

I, Amos Abernathy, do hereby will and bequeath my sweet tone of voice to the girls, and my willingness to play championship football to Walter Boggs.

I, Susie Adams, do hereby will and bequeath my art talent to all art students, my title, "Man Hater," to Betty Campbell, and my black hair to Miss Cash.

I, Barbara Aderhold, do hereby will and bequeath anything I leave at Cannon High to anyone who might find it, and to Norma Barnhardt my ability to pass French.

I, Bill Anderson, do hereby will and bequeath my job as manager of the football team to Walter Boggs and Bob Waller.

I, Jamie Austin, do hereby will and bequeath to Helen Spencer my position in the Quill and Scroll, and, to anyone who is willing to work for it night and day, my four happy years in the Mixed Chorus.

I, Lloyd Avant, being of sound mind but "shiftless body," do hereby will my official title as "The Procrastinatingest Procrastinator that ever Procrastinated" to Larry Fisher; and he is, in turn, to pass the title to someone else.

I, Hollin Baker, do hereby will and bequeath all the chewing gum under my desk to my sister Evelyn, and my good times to Doyce Freeze.

I, Marlene "Pete" Baker, do hereby will and bequeath my box of mascara to anyone who likes to paint; my love for ole K. H. S. to Hazel Snipes; and to Willie McDuffie my high I. Q.

I, Clarice Barnhardt, do hereby will and bequeath my good times and love for "men" to my sister, "Becky"; and to Willie McDuffie I leave my position as treasurer of the Library Club.

I, Betty Barringer, do hereby will and bequeath my love for trigonometry to my sister, Phyllis, a rising Sophomore.

Compliments of

Julie's

"Where Quality and Fashion Meet"

West "A" Street KANNAPOLIS, N. C.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Dot Benfield, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Gail Bost, and my front seat in chapel to anyone who is fortunate enough to get it.

I, Gerald Blackburn, do hereby will and bequeath my pitching ability and my number "16" baseball uniform to my younger brother, Ronald.

I, Horace Bonds, do hereby will and bequeath my position in first period study hall as clean-up chairman to Charles Steen, who likes to take the clean-up committee out.

I, Eddie Bost, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname "Hot Rod" to Winfred Bryant and Donald McDaniels, two of the hot rod gang.

I, Harold Bost, do hereby will and bequeath my ability (?) to skip class to Herman Wyatt and my ability to graduate to George Underwood.

I, Kathryn Bowers, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Mildred Miller and my love for seventh period study hall to Louise Bost and Ray Barbee.

I, Margaret Bragg, do hereby will and bequeath the one glorious day I spent at the Christmas Festival to the lucky girl who is elected princess next year.

I, Bobby Branch, do hereby will and bequeath my luck to stay out of the belt line in Auto Mechanics to anyone who is going to take it in the future; and my ability to graduate in four years to my sister, Betty.

I, Betty Brigman, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have lots of fun, especially during my Junior year, to Dallas Harper, and to anyone with Eskimo blood, my place as band sponsor.

I, Helen Brinkley, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor's post in front of the office to Connie Lumsden, and my love for music to Gwynne Keever.

I, Imogene Brown, do hereby will and bequeath my sponsor uniform to Hulene Freeze and "Shorty" Cruse to cut up and add to theirs, since theirs are getting quite short.

I, Kathleen Brown, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sing off key to my cousin, Millie.

I, Betty Bumgarner, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school and my ability to graduate to my brother, Jerry, a Freshman of next year.

I, Robert Burton, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to my sister, Ruth.

I, Dot Byrd, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Wingate Junior College to Mildred Miller, knowing she has a heart's interest there, too. To "Buck" Riddle I leave my monitor post and front row seat in chapel.

I, Helen Byrd, do hereby will and bequeath to Norma Jean Tutterow my good times at high school; to Charles Castor my seat in chapel and the ability to graduate to my brother, Richard.

I, Kenneth Byrd, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Drum Major to Louis McCombs. To Bobby Alexander I will my seat on the front row in the auditorium. To both I leave my love for Cannon High.

I, Elizabeth Campbell, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to my little brother, Jimmy, knowing that if something doesn't help him, he'll never finish.

I, Joyce Canup, do hereby will and bequeath my cow-lick (which I have plastered down for so many years) to Frances Cavin, hoping she enjoys it more than I have.

I, Doris Carter, do hereby will and bequeath my love and ability to sing to my sister, Mary Carter.

I, Betty Jean Cashion, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Bible to Charles Ketner and my seat on the second row in chapel to my sister, Marguerite Cashion.

I, Greta Sue Cashion, being of sound mind and sounder body, do hereby will and bequeath the dignity I lost in physics to the rowdiest Freshman in Mr. Boone's home room with the sincere wish that he has more fun keeping it than I.

I, Donald Castor, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass on C's to Graydene Ross, who needs them.

I, Bobby Champion, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass Latin, by the blood, sweat, and tears on my fevered brow, to any Freshman stupid enough to take it; and my ability never to get all A's to anyone too smart for his own good.

I, Akins Chastain, do hereby will and bequeath my fondness for Mr. "Shorty" Cowan's bald head to Freshman Earl Lentz.

I, Lelia Mae Christy, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High to my girl-friends, and my ability to be a Senior to my sister, who, I am sure, will need it.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Homer Christy, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in the south tower to Ralph Lloyd and Jimmy Donahue, knowing it will take them both for the job.

I, Mary Christy, do hereby will and bequeath to Nanette Davis my ability to keep quiet in study hall, and my giggles to Alice Overcash.

I, Mildred Clampet, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother Frank, a rising Freshman, and to Shirley Phillips, a rising Sophomore, my ability to finish high school in four years, without going to summer school.

I, Martha Clampet, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to learn so little in so long a time to anyone who wants to follow in my footsteps, and my place in D. O. building to anyone who wants to wade mud.

I, Bessie Mae Clark, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sit in the back of a car without falling in the floor to Betty Branch.

I, Ray Clayton, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have good times in Mr. Van Poole's study hall to any lucky girl; my ability to skate to Pauline Sasser; and my ability to learn to type to Jody Shelf.

I, Dorothy Clontz, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to wear bustles and odd clothing to anyone who is brave enough to try it. I also will my name, "Cowboy," which goes with it.

I, Norman Coggins, do hereby will and bequeath to Peggy McDowell my musical ability, my job as school critic to anyone sucker enough to take it. to Hayes Hatley my seat in band, and to Tommy Snipes my ability to have fun with girls.

I, Allan Collins, will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my cousin Max Collins, and my position as manager of the football team to Howard Holloway.

I, Avis Ann Conner, being of as sound mind and body as any crazy person who tries to graduate in three years, do hereby will this ability to Bearl Adams and Betty McNeil.

I, Peggy Cooke, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in banking to anyone who is willing to accept the responsibility, and my ability to type to Nancy Cooke.

I, Jackie Marie Cornelius, do will and bequeath my good times at K. H. S. to Janice Overcash, my seat in Mixed Chorus to Hilda Maulden, and my love for journalism to Joyce McQueen.

I, Phyllis Davis, do hereby will and bequeath my position as majorette to Martha Williams; to my cousin Novette Davis, I leave my good times at K. H. S., and to Millie Brown I leave my seat in English.

I, Dennis Dave, do hereby will and bequeath my false tooth to Bob Julian (he needs it), my monitor post to Nancy Shelf, my position on the football team to "Buz" Yarborough, and secretary of the Monogram Club to Johnny Deal.

I, Roy Deal, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to manage the football team to Howard Holloway.

I, Doris Deese, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to my sister, Mary, and hope that she will grow to be at least five feet tall in the meantime.

I, Pauline Doolittle, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk in Mr. Somers' study hall to Betty Campbell.

I, Harold M. Dull, do hereby will and bequeath my old worn-out pencils to Jack Reese.

I, Lorna Duvall, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school to Theron, Peggy, Dixie, Jackie and Vera, hoping that they will have as much fun as I have had.

I, Grover Edmiston, do hereby will and bequeath my luck to have two lunch periods for three years to Max Frye and hope he gets to school on time to use them.

I, Joe Elliott, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to work at the Dixie Theater to Gene Whittington, knowing he wants to.

I, Bill Farabee, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to remember names to Jimmy Cook, and my positions on the football bench to Floyd Echerd.

I, Ralph Farmer, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the stage to my loyal assistant, Kenneth Childers, my position as photographer for the CANNON REPORT to anyone who can take good football pictures, and my love for "Stormy Weather" to Myra Groff.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Neeka Fisher, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be engaged to Bob Deal before I finish school to Hulene Freeze, and to Eva Hardy, my good fortune to be elected the "Most Athletic" and "Wittiest Girl" of the Senior Class of '49.

I, Billy Foil, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in the cafeteria fifth period to Betty Fleming, hoping she will get killed as often as I.

I, Lois Freeman, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Virginia Roberts, and my good times to Benny Hargett.

I, Paul Fritts, do hereby will and bequeath my affection for small, dainty, beautiful blondes to "Sam" Robinette and "Slick" Sherrill; and to "Montcalm" Harris, I leave my sense of humor, realizing that his surely needs improving.

I, Doris Gabriel, do hereby not will and bequeath anything, for I feel I could spare nothing.

I, Margaret Gaither, do hereby will and bequeath to Margalene Hager my monitor post, hoping she survives the bruises; and to Hulene Freeze I will my love for music and all my wonderful times at Cannon High.

I, Iris Gatton, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Mr. McCarn's fourth period history class to all those lucky enough to get it.

I, Nina Ruth Glass, do hereby will and bequeath my riproaring good times to my very best friend, Janice Wood. To my ole pal "Millie", I leave the very best, Mr. Van Poole, knowing she is planning to attempt Trig.

I, Pat Glass, do hereby will and bequeath my Indian-blanket skirt back to Minnehaha. She's probably cold by now. My oboe I gladly just leave.

I, "Nat" Gilliam, in an "insane mind", do hereby will my sense of humor to the teachers, my position as cheerleader for years and years to Don Punch. My ability to tell funny jokes I leave to Mr. Bullock, and my love for Cannon High to everyone.

I, Harris Graham, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Raymond Bailey.

I, Fay Gray, do hereby will and bequeath my smile to Emily Caraway, a rising Sophomore, and to Ruth Burton, a rising Junior, I leave my Senior seat in the auditorium.

I, Norma Gray, do hereby will and bequeath my geometry book to Barbara Mills, my seat in the Senior section to Doris Brooks, and my viola to anyone who knows how to play one and wants it.

I, James Grass, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in Cannon High to my sister, Gladys Grass, and to Christine Adams, I will my ability to graduate.

I, Christine Griffin, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass all my subjects and to graduate to my brother, Archie, hoping that he will use it to a better advantage.

I, Harold Griffin, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Miss Gray's English class to any poor Junior who is unlucky enough to get it, and to Faye Miller, I leave my ability to be quiet.

I, Dollie Groff, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass all my subjects to my cousin Myra Faye Groff.

I, Colleen Gurley, do hereby will and bequeath the wonderful times I have had for four years in Art to my brother, Donald, and to anyone who thinks he will enjoy Sociology and Business Correspondence, I will the hard times I had in passing them.

I, Dorothy Louise Hampton, do hereby will and bequeath all my nicknames to anyone who can do such crazy things as I did to obtain them, and my good times during my Senior year (especially in Dramatics) to Ruby, Phyllis, Shorty and Eva.

I, Evelyn Harbison, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Business Correspondence, seventh period, with Mr. Somers to Doris Eidson.

I, Doris Hardin, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk in class and get by with it to my cousin Betty Jo Anderson; to my brother, Billy, I leave my good times at Cannon High, and my "dimples" to Kat Arvin, since they will look pretty with her smiles.

I, Billy Max Hargett, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in the band to Dwight Goodnight, my position as first trombone to Tommy Snipes, and my good times at school to Lorna Castor and Hulene Freeze.

I, Harriet Hartis, do hereby will and bequeath all my wonderful times to Tommy (my brother) and my ability to get my boy friend back from a teacher to anyone who might need it. (Norma Barnhardt.)

I, Bill Harrell, do hereby will and bequeath my English IV book to any bright rising Senior, to Johnny Deal one small cake of creamy white Bon-ami soap, and to Bobby Mullis my uncontrollable bashfulness.

I, Doris Harrington, do hereby will and bequeath my height to anyone lucky enough to be short who doesn't like it.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Bette Harris, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the boys from Salisbury to any girl who is lucky enough to catch one, as it is hard to do.

I, Johnny Helms, do hereby will and bequeath my Senior seat in chapel to Benny Hargett, knowing he hopes to become a Senior some day, and to Charles Castor my ability to break the cafeteria line and get by with it.

I, Guy Hendren, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to Bobby Huffman and my position in the library to Donald McDaniels.

I, Joanna Herman, hereby will and bequeath my two-tone hair to anyone who likes those particular colors.

I, Kathleen Hinson, do hereby will and bequeath my place in French class to anyone who is willing to occupy it. I don't have anything else I'd like to lose.

I, Jerry Horne, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get by without studying to anyone who has more important things to do.

I, Bill Howard, being about as sound in mind as in body, leave my steady nerves after riding in "Daredevil" C. D. Sides' car, to anyone who runs around with him; as for my seat in geometry, I just leave.

I, Kenneth Howard, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Spanish, a subject you have to love to take two years and only get one unit for it, to any numskull who takes the stuff.

I, James Hughes, do hereby will and bequeath to any hard working Freshman my ability to do absolutely nothing, and my seat in Miss Gray's English class to any Junior "who ain't no smarter than me."

I, Raymond Icard, do hereby will and bequeath my chair in the band to my brother Jimmie, and my football helmet to Bobby Waller.

I, Freda Ingram, do hereby will and bequeath my good times to Peggy Austin and Waltarine Slawson.

I, Hoyte Johnson, do hereby will and bequeath my motor bike parking place to Donald McDaniels because he will need it.

I, Phyllis Johnson, do hereby will and bequeath my love and admiration for French (provided Mr. Somers is the teacher) to Norma Barnhardt. This is with the understanding that she knows it is a big joke!

I, Joann Jones, do hereby will and bequeath my good grades in science to Fred Kincaid because he needs them.

I, Lincoln Jung, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in trigonometry to James Efird if he is crazy enough to accept it and my Senior seat to any poor Junior who likes to sit far back.

I, Bette Kerley, do hereby will and bequeath my idle hours in study hall to Nancy Jackson, and my Senior seat in assembly to Butch Dwiggins, hoping she gets closer to the front than I did.

I, Dollie Kesler, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk in second period to Martha White and also my good luck in finding my one and only.

I, Dorothy L. Kiser, do hereby will and bequeath to my highly esteemed companions in public speaking my love for politics and debating and my cherished ambition to some day become "U. S. Minister of Foreign Relations." To my beloved teachers (especially Miss Lancaster) I leave that dear old refrain "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Been!"

I, Kenneth L. Lentz, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate from high school in four years to my one and only, Doris.

I, Bob Linn, do hereby will and bequeath my position in the band to anyone who doesn't mind being rained on, and my '32 Buick to Jerry Sides, who appreciates it.

I, Buddie Lipe, do hereby will and bequeath my wonderful days in high school to my sister, Lois Faye, and my niece, June Gurley, who are rising Freshmen.

I, Joe Little, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname, "Lover Boy," to Doyce Freeze.

I, Emalee Long, do hereby will and bequeath my position as first chair clarinetist to Dale Mills, knowing that he will get it anyhow, and my ability to graduate to my little brother, Larry, who will finish with the class of '67.

I, Sylvia Lowder, do hereby will and bequeath my love for first period study hall and my monitor post to James Hill, and to Annie Lou Cook and Norma Jean Chambers, I leave my ability to graduate.

I, Winton Lowe, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to drive a car without wrecking it to Doyce Freeze. I also leave him my parking place in the horse shoe.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Nathalia Martin, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, Randolph Martin, a rising Senior, my ability to graduate, and to any underclassman who hasn't any more sense than to take it, I leave my nickname "Nutty."

I, W. H. Matthews, do will and bequeath my parking place in the horse shoe to Wade Rollins, my place in D. O. to Frank McDuffie, and my ability to pass to Sherrill (Folly) Austin.

I, Marjorie Meachem, do hereby will and bequeath my Senior seat in chapel to Peggy Hudson, my love for dancing to Charlie Morgan, and my monitor post to anyone who doesn't flinch.

I, Pat Mitchem, do hereby will my monitor post to my cousin, Bill Foutz; my old pencil stubs and ability to laugh to Peggy Robinette; and the name "Nylon" back to Harvey Joe Baxter.

I, Zoe Messer, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to always get on monitor duty on time to Larry Fisher.

I, Betty Moon, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in business correspondence to anyone lucky enough to get it, and my ability to go steady to Valerie Lawing.

I, Glennette Moon, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school to my brother Vinlyn, who is a rising Freshman.

I, Bill Morgan, do hereby will and bequeath my self-appointed position as student government adviser to "Shorty" Upright. To my brother Charlie, I leave the car, for I know he hates to walk to school.

I, Geraldine Morris, do hereby will to the two "Stooges," "Pete" McCombs and Bobby Alexander, my lack of dignity; to "Pete" I leave my flute, since his is always broken, and my last violin string to Bobby for the same reason; I leave my not too-straight hair on rainy days to Connie Lumsden.

I, Clyde Moose, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go out for football, and not make it, to anyone, my ability to go steady to anyone that likes to go steady, and my love for Cannon High School to Anita Roddie.

I, Margaret Moose, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at "Cannon Hi" to "Tootie" Wagoner, who is a rising Senior.

I, Johnsie Mullis, do hereby will and bequeath my position as president of the F. H. A. to anyone lucky enough to acquire it. To my sister, Peggy, I will my ability to find a man while in high school.

I, Geraldine Mullis, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Marie, and my ability to graduate to Ruth Brown.

I, Phyllis McCarn, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school just before the last bell rings to any poor Junior who has to walk as far as I do, and my position as office page to "Kathy" Bradley, hoping she can stand the strain.

I, Jurell McLean, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in three years to my sister, Clatie, and to Susie Wright and Evelyn Shaver, rising Seniors, the good times I've had in my Senior year.

I, Thomas Nash, do hereby will and bequeath to Reid Hampton my ability to get along with Miss Knight, and to Paul Teate my ability to have lunch fourth and "horseshoe" fifth.

I, Betty Nelson, do hereby will and bequeath my expert ability to tell good "jokes" to Johnny Nussman, and all my "letters" to Bill Sloop.

I, Jackie Nichols, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in three years to Sue Smith, and all my good times to Dorothy Tilley.

I, Doris Overcash, do hereby will and bequeath my walk to "Millie" Brown, although she doesn't need it.

I, Charles Payne, do will and bequeath my love and affection for teachers, who, with patience and fortitude, have made my high school career lovable and successful, to my cousin, Betty Cloninger, knowing that she will do better than I did.

I, Ravon "Ramrod" Perdue, do hereby will and bequeath my philanderous nature to Bobby Hoffman to facilitate his high school days.

I, Frank Pethel, being declared of sound mind and memory by a certain English teacher (guess who?), do hereby will my ability to finish high school to my sister, Lou Jean.

I, Charles Pethel, will my seat in Miss Gray's room to Arlie Dellinger.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Nita Joan Petrea, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to my sister, Joyce, a rising Junior, and hope that she will have as much joy in being a Senior as I have had.

I, Donald Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school in four years to my sister, Shirley, and my ability to pass math to Frank Clampet, knowing how badly they both need it.

I, Margaret Philyaw, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Mr. Stoll's home room to anyone who likes to have a ? time.

I, Betty Jean Potts, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go to business correspondence without a pencil and get by with it to anyone needing it, and to Doris Edison, I leave my love for Landis.

I, Geraldine Powell, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school in three years to anyone crazy enough to try it; and my love for Miss Winston to Mary Jolly.

I, Len Price, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the football team to Dwight Goodnight, hoping that he can stay eligible for one full season.

I, Jimmy Propst, do hereby will my ability to be smart and graduate to Louis Patterson.

I, Lloyd Raye, do hereby will and bequeath my "Van Johnson" personality to my sister Frances, hoping it keeps her good company. To Cannon High School, I will my red hair and freckles.

I, Pauline Yon Reavis, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in school and my ability to marry my "one and only" before finishing school to Charlotte Edwards and Frank Rufty, who have a very good start.

I, Dolores Reid, do hereby will and bequeath to Joan Shelf my "wit"; to Helen Spencer and "Mickey" Irby my ability to go steady two whole years, and to "Belle" Basinger my willing smile.

I, Mary Ann Riggs, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become engaged but remain unmarried to "Sis" Pethel, and to my sister, Phyllis, a Freshman, I will my good times at Cannon High.

I, Doris Rimer, do hereby will and bequeath my favorite work in the library to Gelene Hutchens, my seat in chapel to Alton Sherrill, and my good times at school to Mickey Rollings.

I, Bill Ritchie, will and bequeath all the opportunities and privileges which have been given me to the enthusiastic underclassmen.

I, Ned Robinette, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate and make good grades to my brothers, S. L., Bill, and Ralph; also to them I leave all my good times (and there were many) and hope they like school as much as I did. My "love" for Spanish, I just leave.

"We Photograph Anything—Anywhere—Anytime"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Harold Rodgers, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school in three years to anyone who is crazy enough to try it, and my big mouth to Kat Moss.

I, Linn Reid Rogers, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady during my Sophomore, Junior and Senior years to Bill Bennett.

I, Richard Arlen "Clink" Ross, do hereby will and bequeath to Jimmy Donahue my ability to "fight", and to Ralph Lloyd I leave my "courage" and ability to help others when they fight. To "Stud" Fink, I just leave—period.

I, L. G. Rowell, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to come to school four years without skipping to Tommy Upright.

I, Hazel Rowland, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school without getting married to Martha White and Myra Groff.

I, Mack Russell, do hereby will and bequeath my love for beautiful girls to Walter Milan, hoping he can do more about it than I did.

I, Doris Lucile Shaver, do hereby will and bequeath my giggles to Phyllis Smith, and my ability to graduate to Johnnie Shaver and Jerry Nelson.

I, Edward Sheets, do hereby will and bequeath my love for school to any Junior who will accept it.

I, Betty Shepherd, do hereby will and bequeath my technique of riding ferris wheels to all the little nosey boys in the horseshoe who seem to want to know so much about it.

I, Charles Shepherd, do hereby will and bequeath my parking place in the horseshoe to anyone lucky enough to get it.

I, Bobby Shinn, do hereby will and bequeath my working ability to Jimmy Reece.

I, Betty Shoaf, do hereby will and bequeath my position as advertising manager of the CANNON REPORT to any sucker who thinks he can do it and still come out with a sound mind.

I, Alvin Simmons, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school (I hope) in three years to my brother, Lloyd Simmons, knowing that he will need all the ability he can get.

I, Barbara Simmons, do hereby will and bequeath my bashfulness to my sister, "Dot", who is a rising Freshman.

I, Mildred Sisk, do hereby will and bequeath my love for my class ring to Doris Eidson and my ability to become a Senior to Melvin "Punk" Linker.

I, Hugh Slawson, do hereby will my seat in all my classes and especially in biology to someone with more luck than I had.

I, Bill Sloop, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out late and still get to school on time to Charles Steen.

I, Bernice Sloop, being of sound mind(?), do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to anyone crazy enough to stand there and let people run over him, and my liking for tall boys to anyone lucky enough to get one.

I, Velton Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go through high school without skipping classes to my brother, Jimmy.

I, Betty Jean Snipes, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Miss Gray's first period English class to my brother, Tommy, hoping that he can make better grades than I.

I, Colleen Spry, do hereby will and bequeath my position as "biggest flirt" of the Senior Class to Phyllis Grayson, and all my good times at K. H. S. to Nadine Clement, a rising Sophomore.

I, Frances Spry, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Bennie Baucom, my typewriter to Lois Nall, and my seat in third period study hall to J. C. Setzer.

I, Corine Starnes, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady to my sister, Mattie.

I, Duane Starnes, do hereby will and bequeath my wavy hair to Carolyn Bost and my ability to graduate to Bill Bennett.

I, Bobbye Steele, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go with the same boy for more than two years to "Millie" Brown, and my position as band majorette to Sylvia Dabbs.

I, Evelyn Stewart, do hereby will and bequeath my standing position in Mr. Stoll's home room to anyone who is unlucky enough not to get a seat.

I, Martha Ann Stiller, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to anyone who can get down there on time, and my good times at Cannon High to Lou Jean.

I, Grady Strube, do hereby will and bequeath my worn out hooks to Jerry Honeycutt, hoping, if he ever becomes a Senior, the notes in them will help him pass.

I, C. A. Suther, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge of Yohon Von Shmitt, alias Smitty, to Bill Foutz.

I, Margaret Thompson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get through high school in the required four years to Jean Sims.

I, Sylvia Thompson, do hereby will my "Secret Lover Boy" to any girl who is lucky enough to find out who he is, and my ability to come every day my four years in high school to Loretta Marshall, who is a rising Sophomore.

I, Helen Tipton, do hereby will and bequeath to any unfortunate soul whom Miss Lancaster catches in biology chewing gum, my excuse of soaking prunes to eat after school, and to my dearly beloved Public Speaking Class, my ability to keep a solemn face while reciting with my audience acting like Ringling Brothers' Circus.

I, Bobby Tilley, hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school without missing a day to anyone who wishes to try it.

I, Doris Towell, do hereby will and bequeath my big mouth in pep meetings to anyone who likes to yell loud, and my ability to flirt to anyone who likes to flirt as much as I do.

I, Oscar Triplett, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pitch woo to Buzzy Yarborough.

I, Paul Tucker, in good mind and sound health, do hereby will my seat in 311 to some unlucky Junior.

I, Barbara Turner, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pick a sure winner to James Efird, and a wonderful Senior year, being a sponsor, to Hulene Freeze and "Shorty" Cruse.

I, Audrey Vanderburg, do hereby will and bequeath my love for United States history with Mr. McCarn to my cousin, Bobby Lear. You might learn a little about football, too, Bobby.

I, Richard Wagoner, do hereby will and bequeath my (natural) curly hair to Joe Miller, knowing how his falls on rainy days, and all the good times I had in my Senior year to Reid Hampton, a rising Junior.

I, Jerry Wagoner, being of sound mind and body, hereby will and bequeath my broken hand to Buzzy Yarborough.

I, Jackie Walker, hereby will and bequeath my seat in bookkeeping to anyone who hasn't any more brains than I and will have to struggle day by day with Miss McArver as I did. To Bessie Howell, I will my luck in finding my "one and only" before finishing school.

I, Jimmy Walker, hereby will and bequeath my ability to sleep in class to anyone as lazy as I was.

I, Anne Walters, do hereby will and bequeath my curly hair to Hazel Snipes, knowing that when it rains hers falls, and my seat in chapel to anyone who wants it.

I, Bette Watkins, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Mr. McCarn to anyone unfortunate enough to get it.

I, Jerline Watson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Thomas Dendy, and my seat in home room to my cousin, Rhumel Wiles.

I, Nancy White, do hereby will and bequeath my good fortune to be in Mr. Van Poole's sixth period study hall to Novella Myers, hoping she enjoys his jokes as much as I did.

I, Gladie Whitley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk in study hall and get by with it to my cousin, Donald McDaniel, a rising Senior.

I, Jimmy Whitley, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in the south tower to anyone who is sucker enough to want it; and my ability to enjoy high school to all underclassmen.

I, Allie Van Wilson, do hereby will and bequeath all my hard times trying to get Bobby Barnhardt to anyone who succeeds, because I never did.

I, Carole Dolores Wilson, hereby will and bequeath my love for journalism to anyone who likes to write and hope they will make a better reporter for The Cannon Report than I have made.

I, Bobby Wishon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass biology to Barbara Carbint.

I, Betty Witherspoon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability (?) to count money four times in banking and arrive at a different answer each time, then dream about it at night and get the right answer, to anyone lucky enough to get the job.

I, Eugene Womble, do hereby bequeath my job as Co-Editor of the CANNON REPORT to anyone who wants it, and my place on the basketball team to any other "short" fellow.

I, Boyce Yates, will my ability to pass all my subjects (except one) to any Junior lucky enough to be a Senior next year.

I, Phyllis Yoder, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at K. H. S. to Waltarine Slawson and my nickname "Shortie" to Peggy Austin.

It is the desire of this class that each and every wish expressed in this document, drafted on the fifteenth day of December, nineteen hundred forty-eight, be carried out in every respect.

Signed:

J. W. CANNON HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1949.
